

Defender of the Fort

September 15 – 17, 2017

It is a time of peace in The Barony of Raven's Fort. Swords hang idle over fireplaces and Norse new comers wed with local Celtic nobility. Old grudges have been forgotten and the Arts flourish as they do in a place of harmony. In a celebration of unity, Their Sable Winged Excellencies, Baron Elrique and Baroness Sarah call for all to join them at The Stones of Raven's Fort for a festival of merriment and competitions to select their new Baronial Champions. Come share the sumptuous foods, exciting games and warm companionship.

Baronial Champion Representative selections will be made for :

- * Chivalric, Defender of the Fort * Rapier, Cavalier of the Fort * Ravenskald Bard * Bowman of the Fort
- * Artisan of the Fort * Baronial Brewer or Vintner of Fermented Spirits

Three age groups for non-adult competitions will be held in : * Bardic * Arts & Sciences * Rapier * Boffer
Our local Minister of Children will also be running non-competitive activities.

A Saturday evening feast will delight your taste buds with a four course meal including :

- 1 * Salad (with Beets and Onions available on the side) * Bread with Honey, Herb or Plain Butter
- 2 * Hunter Stew (Chicken, Garlic, Rosemary, White Wine served on Spinach) * Barley / Wheat on side
- 3 * Smoked Pork Tenderloin * Roasted Carrots * Turnip Gratin
- 4 * Oat Cake * Apple Butter * Whipped Cream * Cold Sliced Apples

After feast and Court join us around the Bon-fire for music, dancing, drumming, storytelling, libations, social intercourse, general revelry and of course a pilgrimage to the great Stone Circle on the hill.

Merchants are more than welcome, as are Equestrians and their horses.

Horses must show written proof of negative Coggin's Test. Mammal pets are allowed on leashes with written proof of current rabies vaccination. Pet are not to be left unattended.
